WALK AROUND TIME: SELECTIONS FROM THE PERMANENT COLLECTION TO CLOSE OCTOBER 12

ONE-GALLERY PERMANENT COLLECTION DISPLAY TO OPEN NOVEMBER 9

Selections from the Permanent Collection, a one-gallery installation of works drawn from the larger exhibition Walk Around Time: Selections from the Permanent Collection, will be on view November 9, 2003–February 14, 2004. Walk Around Time remains on view through October 12.

Selections from the Permanent Collection presents an array of artwork representing four decades of exploration by such contemporary artists as Matthew Barney, Chuck Close, Rineke Dijkstra, Sigmar Polke, Robert Rauschenberg, Charles Ray, Kara Walker, and Andy Warhol. A special highlight is the premiere installation of several important works by Jasper Johns and Roy Lichtenstein, which have recently been placed on long-term loan to the Walker from the collection of Jean-Christophe Castelli, the son of legendary art dealer Leo Castelli who died in 1999.
